

You always wanted to ... be a part of the solution to the biodiversity crisis?

You want to... learn how to run a conservation project that makes a real difference?

Apply now

Submissions close on 17th
November 2026

Frankfurt Spring School

on Conservation Project Management

WHERE

Goethe University Frankfurt
Germany

WHEN

15.02.–12.03.2027
Monday - Friday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

The Frankfurt Spring School is a unique course to learn the principles of project management from conservation practitioners. Be part of an international group of like-minded participants, meet experienced conservationists and boost your conservation career.

week 1 Introduction, Project Planning & Management week 2 Practical work on real life projects, Monitoring & Evaluation, HR week 3 Human Rights in Conservation, Finance, Communications week 4 Exam, Leadership, Performance skills

Complementary teaching modules and activities

- Meet the practitioners in evening events
- Excursion to the Kellerwald-Edersee National Park & KfW
- Social activities

Do you have what it takes?

- Master's student of biology, environmental sciences or another conservation-related field or early career professional in nature conservation
- Good to very good English proficiency (min. B2)
- Strong interest in applied conservation issues

Good to know:

- The course fee is 200€ (100€ for BAföG recipients)
- Successful participation will be certified with 7 ECTS

How can you apply?

In order to become one of 32 participants, please submit an application in English that includes the following:

- a voice recording of you entitled "Why I would like to take part in the Frankfurt Spring School and the reason why I am dedicated to a career in nature conservation" (max. two minutes)
- a PDF with your CV (max. two pages) and any relevant degrees and certificates

by email to info@frankfurtspringschool.de until 17th November 2026

For further information see also www.frankfurtspringschool.de or contact us at info@frankfurtspringschool.de

With friendly support of the Metzler-Foundation

Gutes vermögen.
METZLER
Stiftung